The Van Bokkelen Scholarship

Introduction

The Van Bokkelen Scholarship is a 50% discount for new students from Catonsville. The Rev'd Libertus van Bokkelen (1851 – 1889) founded a great Church school in Catonsville in 1845. While it flourished, St. Timothy's Hall was a superlative Episcopal boys' school established on the principles of William Augustus Muhlenberg (1796 – 1877). The marvelous Chapel at 200 Ingleside Avenue (just off Main Street) may still be visited. It is used by St. Hilda's Episcopal Church. Dr. Van Bokkelen left Catonsville to become the first Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State of Maryland.
